

CLOSBC presents FULLY COMMITTED

May 29-June 10 at Hermosa Beach Playhouse

The hysterically frenetic non-stop restaurant comedy

Written by Becky Mode

Starring Ted Escobar

Civic Light Opera of South Bay Cities and Executive Producer James A. Blackman, III present the hysterical one-man show Fully Committed by Becky Mode starring Ted Escobar as Sam and directed by Stephanie Coltrin previewing May 29-June 1 and opening Saturday, June 2 at 8 pm at the Hermosa Beach Playhouse.

Fully Committed won the Outer Critics Circle Award and was listed in Time Magazine's Top 10 Plays of 2000. The entire cast of this recent off-Broadway comedy hit is hilariously portrayed by one insanely schizophrenic actor!

In the basement of Manhattan's trendiest and hottest new restaurant, Sam answers the phone and takes the reservations. As the phone begins to ring off the hook, Sam has to juggle a variety of eccentric personalities: from Mafia bosses, Wall Street tycoons, innocent tourists, rich old ladies and supermodels with exotic dietary needs to an irritable kitchen staff and an egomaniacal celebrity chef.

It's a frenetic 90-minute circus high-wire act featuring 40 characters and only one actor. From Sam, the out-of-work actor who handles the reservations line of Manhattan's most exclusive restaurant, to everyone Sam encounters.

Fully Committed is the final show of the Hermosa Beach Playhouse 2006/2007 Season. For tickets and information please call 1-310-372-4477 or go to www.hermosabeachplayhouse.com.
