

Clarence McDonald & Evolution

It's All About The Vibe

August 2 & 3

2 Performances Only

El Portal Theatre proudly presents Clarence McDonald & Evolution: It's All About The Vibe at the historical El Portal Theatre in North Hollywood August 2 & 3, 2008.

An exceptional talent in a league of his own, Clarence McDonald's profound musical career spans more than 40 years. McDonald is a native Angelino who has written, recorded and produced hundreds of records. He has contributed to music classics such as "Best of My Love," "Lovely Day," "How Sweet It Is," "Summer Breeze" and "Sara Smile." These are just a few of the songs he will perform with his band, Evolution at the El Portal Theater on August 2 & 3, 2008. The group comes together to brilliantly deliver a fresh new sound where melody reigns supreme. More than just an evening of amazing musical entertainment, McDonald weaves a fascinating anthology of LA's recording industry throughout the performance sharing stories and images of friends and fellow artists.

Creating some of the most memorable music of our time; McDonald's production, writing and arranging credits include collaborations with Bill Withers, The Emotions, Billy Preston, Patti LaBelle, Johnny Mathis and Deneice Williams. As a keyboardist comfortable playing all genres of music, McDonald has recorded with a long list of musical legends including The Jackson 5, James Taylor, Seals & Croft, Carole King, Ella Fitzgerald, Ray Charles and Barbra Streisand. Joining him onstage will be Matthew Dahlgren, Mari Ishida, Steve Stephens, Rick Taylor and Louis Van Taylor.
