JAMES A. BLACKMAN III
AND THE CIVIC LIGHT OPERA OF SOUTH BAY CITIES OPENS A
NEW NEIGHBORHOOD THEATRE SPACE
THE ARTESIA BOULEVARD STUDIO THEATRE

James A. Blackman III, Executive Director of Civic Light Opera of South Bay Cities, is opening a new venue -- in his own theatrical back yard on Artesia Blvd. in Redondo Beach. To start the summer off right, he's invited his spiritual advisor -- one of his best pals -- to play.

Yes, the irrepressible Maripat Donovan returns to the South Bay with her award-winning sister act -- LATE NITE CATECHISM. The good sister will be performing beginning Saturday, June 3rd at 8 p.m. and 2 p.m. Matinees on Sundays . The run is open ended.

Come learn the real stories of the saints -- and a few sinners -- as Sister takes you through the Catechism class you always wished you'd had, even if you're not Catholic! No religion goes untouched in this class act. This award winning show is the longest running one-nun show in Los Angeles.

The newest theatre venture for the CLOSBC will be 100 +Seats and is located off the rehearsal space of the of the CLO Artesia Blvd, Corporate Offices. It will be available for rentals and other projects during the week.
